Arona, the traditional Feast of "Tredicino"...

From Friday, March 9th to Sunday, March 18th, Arona celebrates its "Tredicino". The Feast was established to commemorate the return to the Church of S. Graziano of the remains of the martyrs Fedele and Carpofero, two legionnaires who were martyred. The remains had been transferred, by order of Carlo Borromeo, to Milan, but the people from Arona protested until they came back to their people. It was in 1576, March 13th. From that moment the event has been celebrated in several ways. Now the popular traditions has been lost but the remains of the two martyrs still get exposure in the Church of SS. Martiri. During the celebrations many stands with sweets, rides for children and young people will cheer the evenings, to say goodbye to winter and give a welcome to spring. On Saturday, March 10th, at the Church of San Graziano at 9 pm there will be the Great Concert of Tredicino. Furthermore, from March, 10th to 25th, art exhibition of paintings of the artists of ArteAdArona in the shop windows.
