16th edition of the Baveno Festival Umberto Giordano begins!

The 16th edition of the Baveno Festival Umberto Giordano begins on July 11th: great musicians and wonderful landscapes...until July 21st. Fifteen days of concerts, projections, guided tours to the ancient part of Baveno, outdoor events, excursions to the caves: Baveno, in memory of the composer Umberto Giordano, is transformed into a city of music. Every corner of the city will resound with music for all...from the lovers of classical to the youngest. The first event scheduled is for Thursday, July 11th at the churchyard of the Church of Saints Gervaso and Protaso with "The light in the darkness", a cello concert which will offer a repertoire from Bach to Metallica. At the same time there will be the inauguration of video, sound and light installations in front of the church and in the churchyard. Free entrance.
