A trip aboard an historic train to discover the Orta Lake

A trip aboard an historic train...a locomotive with electric traction will leave on Sunday, June 24th from Turin to get to the banks of Orta Lake. A journey through the characteristic landscapes of the Novara area, from the rice fields to the vineyards, until reaching the ancient villages on the lake. The event aims to promote and to let people discover the excellence of the Novara area and the wonders of art and landscape of the Orta Lake.

A unique opportunity to explore the picturesque towns, admire beautiful landscapes and visit the two main cities of Cusio area, Omegna and Orta San Giulio, both rich of landscapes, art and culture. All this in one day only and without even getting behind the wheel! The trip on the historical train has the following costs: € 17,00 from Torino-Lingotto, € 9,00 from Novara and from the next stops. Free ticket for children up to 12 years old. One way not to forget the past, but to discover it!

The very last tickets are available online on the website www.distrettolaghi.it
