23rd International Day of the Tourist Guide

On Sunday, February 26th there will be the 23rd edition of the International Day of the Tourist Guide.

The event was born in 1990 thanks to the World Federation of Tourist Guides. In Italy, it is promoted from the National Association of Tourist Guides. The goal of the day is to highlight the importance of the work of the tourist guides, who promote the territory. As in 2011, the guides of the Association "ProntoGuide" have organized a day in which they will lead free tours to discover our beautiful territory.

The theme of the day will be "Usual and unusual views: from the mountains of Ossola to the plain of Novara". Here is the list of sites to visit for free on February, 26th on the territory of the Tourist District of the Lakes: the Parish of St. John the Baptist in Dagnente (Arona), the Parish of St. Maria Assunta in Dormelletto, the "Sacro Monte" in Orta San Giulio, the Church of St. Filiberto in Pella, the Church of "Madonna della Neve" in Domodossola. Take advantage of this special day!
