Island of San Giulio, feast of the patron Saint of Orta

On Sunday, January, 31st, the doors of the cloistered convent of Benedictine nuns, on the Island of San Giulio, will be open to the public in honor of the festivities for the Patron Saint. San Giulio, protector of masons, built many churches in his life and the legend tells that the one he built on the island of San Giulio was the hundredth. Many builders from Cusio and the surrounding areas come every year to celebrate their patron together with the normal visitors. Celebrations will start at 10.30 am, in the Basilica, with the holy Mass, at 2.45 pm there will be the recitation of vespers, and then the procession. The cloistered nuns will give bread to everyone who wish it. Bread is the symbol of the Feast of San Giulio. To get to the island, from Piazza Motta in Orta there will be a boat service from 9 am to 5.30 pm. Do not miss the occasion to visit this little characteristic island on the lake and the enchanting village of Orta, with its colorful streets and beautiful corners, to breath that typical magic air, rich of mistery, legends and beauty.
