Permanent Dahlia Exhibition at the Gardens of Villa Taranto

Visiting the Botanical Gardens of Villa Taranto in Verbania Pallanza, is like making a journey through foreign lands. From the last decade of July until the end of October, in the "Dahlia Maze", you can see more than 1500 plants, divided in 350 varieties, which create a play of colors, dimensions and forms that is incomparable with any other floral essence. Among these we can mention the "Decoratives" with big flowers, like the impressive "Emory Paul" and the

"Pompons" such as the "Little William" that sometimes does not even reach the 20 mm of diameter. The Botanical Gardens of Villa Taranto are daily-opened from 8.30 am to 6.30 pm, holidays included. The visit at the gardens can last 1 hour or 1 hour and a half. Visitors can have lunch at the bar-restaurant available situated at the entrance, near the ticket office.
