The "Week of Tulip" in the Gardens of Villa Taranto

From April 18th to 25th at the Botanical Gardens of Villa Taranto will take place the traditional "Week of Tulip". During this time of the year the garden explodes with colors thanks to the more than 80.000 bulbs in bloom, over which reigns the tulip. This beautiful flower comes from Asia where he has born and people started to regard him as a talisman against bad luck. At Villa Taranto you can admire two paths of tulips: the "layrinh of tulips" where there are about 24.000 bulbs from over 65 varieties and the path along the way of the "oaks". Among the many shades we remind the black tulip (Queen of night) and the great Big Chief. In this season at Villa Taranto people can see blooms of forsythie, magnolias, camellias, rhododendrons and of some azaleas. The Botanical Gardens of Villa Taranto are open everyday, festivities included, from 8.30 am to 6.30 pm. For visitors a snackbar and a picnic area.
