ENTE GIARDINI BOTANICI VILLA TARANTO

It's springtime! Villa Taranto opens its gates

On March, 21st, the Botanical Gardens of Villa Taranto, in Verbania Pallanza will open for the new tourist season. Villa Taranto is one of the most known and appreciated tourist destinations of Lake Maggiore, a real natural masterpiece, result of a laborious process started in 1931 from the Scottish Captain Neil McEacharn. In the gardens, developed on 16 hectares, it is possible to admire 20.000 botanical species coming from all over the world and divided in different smaller gardens, each with its own peculiarities. The itinerary of the visit involves two different routes: a shorter one, of about 1,850 Km and a longer one, of about 2,950 Km. The duration of the visit depends on the itinerary you decide to choose. The tourist season 2012 will start on March, 21st and will finish on November, 1st with the following daily times: 8.30 am – 6.30 pm (in October 8.30 am – 5 pm). The itinerary can be done in freedom, but it is also possible to ask for a guided tour made by one of the tourist guides of the territory.
