The new tourist season in the Distretto dei Laghi begins!

With the reopening of the Borromeo Islands the new tourist season in the Distretto dei Laghi has officially started! In Stresa, until October, it will be possible to visit the gardens of Villa Pallavicino which are extended in an area of 20 ectars where you can admire bloomed avenues, secular trees and a beautiful botanical garden. And more...the main attraction of the park is the animals: over 40 kinds of mammals and exotic birds...for a fantastic trip with your children! In Verbania Pallanza, the Botanical Gardens of Villa Taranto will be open until November, 1st, every day of the week from 8.30 am to 6.30 pm. Another beautiful attraction with a wonderful view on the Lake Maggiore is the Botanical Garden Alpina, situated at 300 mt. from the cable car station of Alpino. From the beginning of April it will be open every day of the week from 9.30 am to 6 pm. For the new season it is now visible the San Carlone of Arona, the second higher metal statue (representing a human figure) in the world. Open every day of the week (visit fee).
